11-9-10 10:00A

- Kelly Hong } FDEP
Beth Knauss }

Jeff Curtis } SK
John Walker }
Mike Fusco }

→ Beth made introductions since this is Mike's & John's 1st meeting - we're delegated by EPA, etc. Therefore we must be as strict as EPA, how you got here etc.

→ Mike did a little intro on SK's behalf
- we have internal procedures w/ training to applicable employees - goal is to be a responsible company.

- recoating has been completed on the return/fill area.

The bins were moved/or started to be moved during the inspection & the used oil was cleaned up.

~~scribble~~

Beth - with the permit coming up for renewal will look at the problem areas & perhaps address w/ required training esp. w/ customer service reps & when they ~~int~~ interface with the customers.

- we had a dangerous situation with ~~the~~ the drums from Regency Metals
- discussed this a little bit

Then discussed the Clean Fuels manifest (2300-lbs w/ "FLCESQG")

- discussed - The Sniffer vs. "no pugnal." on the stuff from Wal-Mart - pre-printed - are sniffing the loads in Florida.

Beth asked if they were seeing any benefit to SW re-def. - The said not really too much.
eliminating the 100% solvent red-

- Mike - discussed the penalty. asked for Good Faith - we said Jim told us no. - gave the list of ~~the~~ inspectors vs warning letter, co's etc. - were combined some stuff. etc.

Beth - said she will ask Jim.
Jim - said OK. 20% off. - SFCO
- Same singinators. one lump.
