Kyle,

We have reviewed the information contained in your March 29, 2017, request. Your current EPA ID, FLD984171850, that identifies your operations in Suite 111 can cover the additional Suites, 107 & 108, based on the size of the building and the size of the contiguous property at 10705 Rocket Boulevard, Orlando, Florida.

There is no objection to Daniels Sharpsmart, Inc. beginning operations in the additional suites prior to the Department receiving an updated 8700-12FL notification form from Zenith Environmental Services documenting the closure of their operation. Please note, there should be a clear segregation in the warehouses between any materials remaining on site that are under the control of Zenith Environmental Services and new materials under the control of Daniels Sharpsmart, Inc.

Sincerely,

Thank you John – Not sure if you saw the second email, but we will also need to know if we can operate before Zenith sends in the formal “closure” notice to the state.

Look forward to your response.

Kyle,

I will put something together for you on Friday. Our initial response is we do not have an issue with your current EPA ID, FLD984171850, covering the additional suites, 107 & 108, based on the small size of the building and property.

I will put it in a more concise format for you Friday.

John

Subject: Daniels Sharpsmart, Inc. 8700 - 12FL Form
Importance: High

Hi Susan,

As discussed, please see the attached for referencing the request to occupy another suite within our building.

Daniels is currently registered under EPA ID FLD984171850 at 10705 Rocket Blvd. Suite 111 Orlando, FL. Daniels was subleasing Suite# 107 & 108 to Zenith Environmental Services, LLC EPA ID FLR000208355. Zenith Environmental Services LLC has moved out of the space, and Daniels would like to occupy the additional space to handle UPW.

Please confirm if Zenith's current EPA ID will transfer to Daniels OR if Daniels will be assigned a new EPA ID OR if Daniels can use its existing EPA ID for the new space.

I will wait to hear back before I mail the hard copy with original signature to your attention.

Thank you!

Best regards,

Kyle
