Stuart:

Your public notice will air tomorrow morning.

Occasionally I will see an ad in the employment section of the paper. Are you still looking for people? Our company helps employers recruit great candidates reaching people working in their field using radio, online and connecting on their mobile devices. If you let me know who works on your employment advertising I would like to show them how we can help. With 8 stations in the Tampa market and stations in 150 markets chances are we can deliver some top notch candidates not looking in the employment section but open to a move. Let me know if I can help.
