Hello Merlin,

Thank you for the note. I had to take the rest of my vacation days through the end of December, and will be back to work (formally) on January 2. I don't anticipate that the RAI response will be ready by January 2, so am requesting an extension to deliver the response on January 31. Please advise if that is acceptable to the Department. Happy Holidays to you and the team in Tallahassee. It has been, as always, great working with all of you.

Thank you, Jeff

You may want to tell them that their RAI response is due Jan 2, not Dec 30, because of holidays.
