Hello Kaitlyn, the tank inspection log has been lost, we looked everywhere and were not able to locate it. I believe I may have been thrown away by mistake. In the past the tank inspections were conducted every Friday and on 5/5/20, we started a new log book. To ensure the data is never lost again, our new protocol is to make electronic copies of all the tank inspections after they are completed.

Please let me know if you need anything else. Thank you
